

* OSD REVIEW COMPLETED *

Dear John:

Confirming our recent conversation, Bob and I have decided, with the staff capabilities now present in the Defense Intelligence Agency (DIA) and General Krulak's office, to dis-establish Ed Lansdale's office and divide its residual special operations and intelligence functions between General Carroll's and General Krulak's offices.

25X1

[redacted] General Krulak's office will assume responsibility for the Washington-level planning and direction of special operations and special activities in which DoD participates and which are not principally intelligence in character.

As we discussed, [redacted] will, with your approval, be assigned as Special Assistant to General Carroll in which capacity he can continue to provide direct support to Bob and myself, General Taylor and others, particularly on 5412 and Special Group (CI) matters.

Sincerely,

JAC

Honorable John A. McCone

Director of Central Intelligence
